

FRANK MATOSE, Curriculum Vitae.

Department of Sociology• Rondebosch, Cape Town, South Africa 7700 •+27-21-650-3536•
frank.matose@uct.ac.za or fmatose@gmail.com

PROFILE

- Researcher with more than 25 years' experience
- University teaching, student supervision and examination for 10 years
- International field experience in Zimbabwe, South Africa, Mozambique, Zambia, Botswana, Malawi, Namibia, Kenya, Tanzania and Cameroon as well as to a limited extent, Indonesia.
- Research interests in natural resource commons, forests, biodiversity conservation; the intersection of state, local people and conservation with emphasis on resistance, joint management and the role of local institutions.
- C2 National Research Foundation rated researcher -2015-2020.

EDUCATION

- D.Phil., 2002
Specialisation: Development Studies
- M.Sc., 1994
Specialisation: Rural Sociology
Awards: Trevor Manning Book Prize for High Achievement in Rural Sociology (MSc.), University of Alberta, Canada
- B.A. General, 1987
Specialisation: Sociology and Linguistics

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Current: Associate Professor and Director: Environmental Humanities South (2018 -)

- Provide collaborative leadership for the Centre,
- Financial and supervisory administration of staff and student grants
- Post-graduate student supervision
- Research programme direction in collaboration with team members

Senior Lecturer, Department of Sociology, University of Cape Town, South Africa (2009 - 2017)

- Teach courses in development studies, individual and society, and land and natural resource governance
- Research on society-environment relations, community-based natural resource management, biodiversity conservation, policy processes, rural livelihoods, land reform and governance,
- Supervise post-graduate students from honours to PhD levels
- Developing proposals to raise funding for research activities

Programme Leader/Senior Researcher, Programme for Land and Agrarian Studies, University of the Western Cape, South Africa (2004-2008)

- Research on society-environment relations, community-based natural resource management, biodiversity conservation, policy processes, rural livelihoods, land reform
- Taught courses in natural resource management, rural development, and qualitative research methods.
- Supervise post-graduate student research projects
- Developing fundable proposals to raise funding for research programmes

Zimbabwe Team leader, Centre for International Forestry Research (2000-2003)

Frank Matose

- Leadership of the Zimbabwe Adaptive Co-management of Forests research team (community management, policy processes, social learning and forest-based livelihoods)
- Carried out participatory action research on community management of forests, policy processes, social learning and forest-based livelihoods

Social Forestry Research Unit Leader, Research and Development Division, Forestry Commission of Zimbabwe, Zimbabwe (1995-1999)

- Provided leadership for research on social forestry within the organisation (Rural development forestry, policy issues, livelihoods and participatory management)
- Teaching social forestry at Zimbabwe Forestry College

Research Officer, Social Forestry Unit, Research and Development Division, Forestry Commission of Zimbabwe, (1988 - 1994)

- Research into, and, developing joint forest management initiatives between forest reserves and neighbouring communities, applied research in appropriate extension methodology in collaboration with the Extension Division of the Forestry Commission.
- Participatory action research with communal farmers to develop forestry techniques for managing forests and tree management.

TEACHING

Undergraduate courses

SOC 1001F/1005S: Intro to Sociology/Individual and Society

SOC 2030F: Poverty, Globalisation and Development

SOC 3031S: Social justice and inequality

Post-graduate courses

SOC 4021S: Introduction to Political Ecology

SOC 5007F: Economic and Social Change

SOC 5011S: Society and Natural Resources

SOC 5018F: Earth Ecology Humanities

EXTERNAL MODERATION

International

University of Freiberg, Germany

Masters in Global studies programme – environmental theses.

University of Botswana

Department of Sociology - Post-graduate dissertations in development studies (Masters)

Local

University of Fort Hare

Department of Sociology –

University of the Witwatersrand

International Human Rights Exchange Programme

STUDENT SUPERVISION

PhD

1. 9 current
2. 5 supervised to completion.

Masters

1. 7 Current students (2 under examination)
2. 10 Graduated students.

Honours

1. 10 Supervised to graduation

EXTERNAL EXAMINATION OF STUDENTS

PhD

1. 10 Examined from within South Africa
2. 1 International (Netherlands)

Masters

1. 8 from South African Universities.
2. 5 from External universities.

LEADERSHIP

Faculty

1. Director, Environmental Humanities South Centre (Jan 2018-)
2. Faculty Ethics committee – from 2016 –
3. Faculty of Humanities transformation committee –November, 2010 – till March 2015.
4. Selection committee (Equity representative), Lecturer/Senior lecturer/Associate Professor, Department of Drama, September, 2014.

University

1. Senate co-opted member – 2016 to 2020

International journals editorship

Editorial board member of the International Journal of the Commons (IJC): 2006 – present

Associate Editor and editorial board member of Society and Natural Resources: 2016-2018

REVIEWER FOR REFEREED JOURNALS

Called upon from time to time to review articles in over 20 Peer Reviewed mostly international journals that focus on environment and society.

RESEARCH OUTPUTS

My overall h-index is 14 and since 2009 is 7 while overall my citations are 740 while since 2009 they are 267. My most prominent paper in World Development in 2001 has a citation index of 216.

A. Monographs (under prep)

- 1) Matose, F. (forthcoming) Beyond Waiting Politics in Conservation: Forests and the Power of the Weak in Southern Africa. Tucson, University of Arizona Press – Critical Green Engagements: Investigating the Green Economy and Its Alternatives.
- 2) Matose, F. and Marongwe, N. (forthcoming) Revolution Unrealised: Understanding the impact of fast track land reform in Zimbabwe. Brill, Savusa Series.

B. Edited Collections

4 Published

C. 15 Peer reviewed journal articles

D. 17 Refereed book chapters

E. 8. Non-peer reviewed articles in Series 8.

F. 5. Published conference proceedings

G. 13. Unpublished conference proceedings